Lbegin my dictation with the name of the Highest Entity, seeking thereby overflowing blessings in what He has caused (us) to attain. Then secondly, I praise Allāh, a praising whose sources of water are easy to swallow and pleasant¹. [I praise Him] while mounted on my riding animal of beautiful thankfulness². And I send blessings and peace upon the Light that was described with precedence and firstness. A light passed down in noble features³ and foreheads.

I ask Allāh Most High that He confers Good Pleasure (riḍwān) that singles out the purified family of the Prophet⁴ and encompasses his Companions, followers and all who take the Prophet as a patron (walī) and leader (imām). And I ask Allāh that he confers guidance by which I might be guided in my travelling upon the clear paths. And I ask protection thereon from being misled in the open tracts of straying and from steps leading thereto.

I shall unfold from the narrative of the Prophet's Birth garments of varying hues and string together pearls on a necklace of noble lineage; a necklace that pleases the listeners' ears⁵.

I seek help through Allāh's might and overpowering strength, for indeed there is no might nor strength except through Allāh.

O Allāh, perfume his noble grave with the fragrant scent of blessings and peace
